

Greece - A Country to Enjoy

With a population of 10 million but more than 19 million tourists visiting Greece each year, it's a country that does everything in a BIG way. They eat a lot, drink a lot and celebrate in style but why wouldn't you when you have all of that natural beauty on your doorstep.

Santorini has captured the world with breathtaking sunsets viewed from white washed house dotted on the cliffs. It deeply moves even the most jaded traveller to slowly drift into the port on a slow open decked ferry. Of course there are many other ways to get to Santorini but who would want to rush such an awe inspiring sight!

The Acropolis in Athens is said to be one of the most important ancient sites in the world. Crowned by the Parthenon, it's visible for almost every angle of Athens, a city of over 1 million people.

Corfu is the second largest island in the beautiful Greek Islands. It has the nation's highest rainfall, and give travellers a realistic chance at tasting fresh fruit and vegetables prepared in the traditional Greek way.

Greek and Mediterranean food is a way of life in Greece. It's used to celebrate, commiserate and often without an excuse. Wonderful examples of fresh produce hail from all around the country including tasty fresh vegetables, quality olive oil, an array of pasta and even their own national alcoholic drink, the aniseed flavoured, Ouzo. Not to be outdone by their Italian neighbours, almost every café in Greece serves Frappes, a cold coffee drink made with ice, milk and sugar.

Greece has a fascinating history and a welcoming culture that will have you wishing that you had your own Greek grandparents cooking up a storm in your kitchen.

Interesting facts about Greece
